SHEPPARD ASKS INSPECTION OF HIS PAST WORK

Pledging Himself To Secure Aid for Farmers and Declaring His Opposition To Japanese — U. S. Senator Speaks Here Yesterday

Declaring aid to farmers to be more essential to the welfare of the nation than aid to railroads, that help to the hand working class, which constitutes 85 per cent of the entire population of the nation, would be the greatest help to the nation, and summing up his record of accomplishments while serving as Senator from Texas for the past eleven years, Senator Morris Sheppard spoke to an attentive crowd in the district court room yesterday afternoon.

He launched his speech with the assertion that he was confident of the success of the Democratic non-Lee for President and the platform as laid down by the party. He gave a brief summary of his record in the Senate recalling the fact that he had secured legislation relative to the development of the potash beds in Texas. Also of the deepening of the Texas harbors that were second to New York in exports. He spoke of "the organization of the farm bloc as one of the means of promoting the interests of the farmer. He stated that he was for the Versailles treaty and the League of Nations and had done all in his power to aid the soldiers, both during and following the World War. He has an attendance record in the Senate that is almost 100 per cent, and has voted on all but 13 roll calls since he has been a member.

As he warmed to his subject he pointed out that he was author of the bill that made Mothers Day a National day, showing respect to mothers. He also stated that he was the author of the maternity and infant hygiene bill that has been adopted in 44 states. After discussing the 18th and 19th amendment he requested the press to state that he had been misquoted as to the authorship of the bills. He was author of the 18th amendment and had an important part in the promotion of the 19th amendment.

In summing up the critical situation that farmers of the United States are facing today he took a decided stand against admission of inferior races into this country. The greatest evil as pointed out by the speaker was that of the poverty standards of living of the immigrants that come to this country. The standard of living in the ordinary American working man's family is far above that standard and with the present high cost of living the low standards of the foreigners makes it difficult for Americans to compete with foreign labor.

"There is room for only one kind of standard under the American flag," stated the speaker, "and those are American standards." He concluded amid enthusiastic applause from the audience. This declaration on the part of the speaker followed an explanation of the fact that the most serious opposition to the Volstead act comes from foreigners who cannot understand American laws.

Senator Sheppard discussed Japanese resentment against the exclusion act and stated that those who did not realize the yellow menace now would feel the danger of it in later years in the same manner as those who are directly connected with it today. He explained the Japanese position as being an entirely selfish one on the part of the Japanese government and that measures enacted against them by the United States were very similar to measures enacted against the Chinese government by the Japs. With 100,000 Japs already in possession of the best of the California soil and with the number multiplying at a rapid rate, the situation is sure to become a critical one in later years. Vernon Branch of Woolworth Stores Wins Third Place

The local Woolworth store won the distinction of being the third best store in the Dallas district of the National chain. A. A. Thatcher, superintendent of the Dallas district was here last week and inspected the store. His report was that the Brownwood store was first and the Abilene store second. He commended R. L. Casco, manager of the Vernon branch for his work here and assisted him in working out a plan by which the store can still be improved and possibly put into first place.

'Man with the Hoe' La Follette Backer.

WATER FROM LAKE NOT IN CITY MAINS

REPORT THAT RESERVOIR SUPPLY IS BEING USED DENIED BY CITY OFFICIALS

The rumor that water from the city lake is being pumped into the mains is incorrect, according to city officials. A line was completed yesterday connecting the lake with the city water system to be available as an emergency water supply in case of conflagration. No water has been pumped from the lake into the mains and will not be except in case of a fire of such proportions takes place as to exhaust the supply from the city wells.

It is pointed out that such an emergency is extremely unlikely. It will be recalled that the fire which destroyed the Smith, Dixon and Massie buildings early in February was the most serious fire in the history of the city and an ample supply of water was available from the wells. Hence, city officials point out, there would be no necessity for using water from the lake unless a more serious fire than the one in February occurs and that in all probability the water from the lake will never be put into the city mains.

The report that lake water is being used began to be circulated in the last few days following the development of a number of typhoid fever cases. It is considered significant that the report started before any pipe line was completed to the lake. The lake connection is purely a measure of extra precaution against disastrous fires and to get a better fire insurance rate.

In connection with the reports of numerous typhoid cases, Dr. H. H. Rhoads, county health officer, states that many cases of sickness reported as typhoid fever are not in fact typhoid. Several persons who have been reported as ill with typhoid fever are able to be up in two or three days. Dr. Rhoads says there is no occasion for alarm, but suggested that precautions should be taken in keeping premises clean and removing breeding places for flies and mosquitoes.

PAVING WEST OF PEASE RIVER IS NOW COMPLETED

Completion of 3.62 Miles of Paving East of Tolbert Makes Total of 12.96 Miles of Colorado to Gulf Highway in Wilbarger Paved

Without the ceremonies which marked the completion of the last lap of the paving on the highway connecting Vernon and Oklahoma April 14, the last lap of the paving on the highway west of Vernon between Pease river and Tolbert was finished Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This stretch of paving starts at a point 400 feet west of the Pease river bridge and extends to a point one and a half miles east of Tolbert and is 3.62 miles long, and will be open for traffic about August 10.

The work was started about April 17 and was completed in 82 working days including delays by lack of material to arrive on time and weather conditions. The weather conditions caused no serious delay since it has been generally fair and only short delays have been experienced from that source. The delay from shortage of material has been only temporary.

The opening of this strip of highway will give Wilbarger county 12.96 miles of pavement on the Colorado-Gulf Highway.

This leaves only about 18 miles yet to be paved on the Colorado-Gulf Highway in Wilbarger county and bonds have been voted for all the eastern part of the county. For the strip from the east line of the county through Harrold west, the bonds have been sold, but the contract for the paving has not been let. The bonds for the remainder of the highway which connects Oklahoma and Harrold have not been sold. When the two strips in the east part of the county have been completed Wichita Falls and Vernon will be connected with a paved highway.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC HERE NOT LIKELY

WATER SUPPLY OF CITY FREE OF GERMS—CLEAN-UP BEST WAY TO PREVENT DISEASE

Considerable talk is being heard concerning the spread of typhoid fever in Vernon and even though there are several cases reported at the present the physicians state that there is little danger of an epidemic. The city water supply is free of typhoid germs according to a test made only a few days ago and the manner in which the spread of the disease can be prevented is to improve the sanitary conditions around the homes and to kill flies.

The general opinion that the odors arising from the gutters are caused by the water from the city mains is a mistake, according to officials. The streets, as is the annual procedure of the city to prevent disease, are disinfected in order that any germs carried by flies and on shoes will not be carried to the home from the gutters, and it is from this disinfectant that the odors come. The sewer system is disinfected annually and all precaution taken to prevent the spread of disease.

The recent report on the city water supply, as made by the State Board of Health, shows that after a 48 hour test the water showed no gas formations. This condition shows the water better than it was a year ago when after the same test the water showed from 25 to 30 per cent gas formation. The samples which were taken from four places on the city water system showed practically the same result. The water that had not been treated with chlorine showed very little difference when given the 48 hour test.

In some cities it has been required that all water used for drinking purposes be boiled and in some instances housewives are advised to pour boiling water over all vegetables. This is not necessary in Vernon since the water supply is practically free of infection.

The sanitary condition of the city is such that a drive for its betterment around the home would be very beneficial and such a move is being planned by city officials.

VERNON WOMAN DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER IN FORT WORTH—LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. A. M. Works, died Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. M. Willis, in Fort Worth, where she had gone two months ago.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Methodist church of which Mrs. Works had been a member for years. The services were conducted by Dr. R. E. Dickenson, pastor. The songs sung by the choir were favorites of Mrs. Works, which she had quoted just a few hours before her death.

Mrs. Works was born in Nashville, Tenn., and was married to A. M. Works, Jr., of Fort Worth, December 3, 1874 at Waxahatchie. The family moved here from Amarillo, about eight years ago. In March, Mrs. Works suffered a stroke of paralysis and since that time has been seriously ill. She was taken to the home of her daughter, in Fort Worth, hoping that the change might benefit her health.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, George, of Wichita Falls and A. M. Works, Jr., of Fort Worth, and four daughters, Mrs. J. S. Bailey of Dalhart, Mrs. J. M. Second Annual Meeting To Held at Fair Park With Interesting Program Arranged for 200 Boys from F. Counties

The Farm Club Boys annual encampment will open here tomorrow morning when more than 200 boys from Baylor, Foard, Knox, Wichita and Wilbarger county are expected to enroll for the three-day meeting to be held at the Fair park. The entertainment program for the meeting to be held at the Fair park contains many interesting features for the visitors.

Mayor Harry Mason has been asked to make the welcome address and H. M. Cantrell, county agent Knox County, will give the response. The entire program will under the personal supervision of P. D. Chaney, county agent of Wilbarger county, who has arranged for some educational work during the encampment which will include various phases of farming. Educational lessons will be given by county agents from the five counties represented and men who have had much experience along the line.

The athletic program of the camp will include baseball games, box matches and many other forms of sports with B. G. Bird in charge. Mr. Bird, principal of the Lock school, has been very active in connection with the club boys.

The Boy Scout band of 35 players will give a concert at the fair Wednesday night in connection with an athletic program that is being arranged. Other features of the week's work are the many pleasure trips planned for the boys. Aside from stock judging contests and lectures on farm problems, swimming parties and trips to Kell Mill have been arranged.

This is the second annual encampment of the Farm Club Boys and both meetings have been held in Vernon. The fight for the meet as he held here was a hard one since Seymour was a strong contender for the meet this year. Many interesting sites around Vernon and the hearty cooperation of the citizens and all concerned will meet. The program arranged by the county agents is even better than that of last year in many particulars and the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club have arranged to entertain the boys with luncheon on Thursday and Friday. Also the rotary club is planning to give an entertainment Thursday evening at 2:45. With the clubs of the town co-operating with the county agent and the heads of many business firms coming for their share of the work, Chaney expects to win the third meeting for Vernon in 1925.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE IS ON AN INCREASE

After Steady Decline for Past Two Months Reports Show Substantial Backing for Steady Upward Trend—1131 Present Sunday

Attendance at the various Sunday schools took a turn for the better today when an increase of 17 was shown in the report. This increase is due to the large attendance at Baptist Sunday school with 400 present at Sunday then the previous Sunday. The first Methodist Sunday school showed an increase of 10 over the previous Sunday and Federated Presbyterian Sunday school had the same increase. This offset by the decline in the attendance at the three other Sunday schools. The Central Christian Sunday school showed a loss of 10. The Church of Christ Sunday school had a decline of 20 and the Paul's Lutheran Church lost 5. The total collection showed an increase of $6.22. One Sunday school had the same amount as last Sunday while only one fell below the previous report. All others showed increase.

The Baptist Sunday school led the field with an increase of 40 in attendance and $5.05 collection. It is the first time since the reports have been started that a Sunday school has stepped out in front with so large a lead in attendance collection. This Sunday school maintained a good average attendance and has been leading the other Sunday schools in attendance the past six weeks.

The report from all Sunday schools Sunday is as follows: First Baptist Sunday school, 395 present, $5.23 collection; First Methodist Sunday school, 285 present, $12.20 collection; Church of Christ Sunday school, 182 present, $5.50 collection; Federated Presbyterian Sunday school, 131 present with $9.27 collection; Central Christian Sunday school, 168 present with $7.55 collection; St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school, 30 present with $2.15 collection. You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"Dentists have found that the exercise of gum chewing brings about a better nutrition of the teeth . . ."

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and

William G. McAdoo lost more than his party's nomination for the presidency at the Democratic convention. He lost some of the prestige which comes to a good loser and a good sportsman. His first blunder was to allow some of the leaders in his campaign to wage a fight for the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. This was construed as an admission that he had serious doubts of winning as other Democrats before had won. The crowning mistake came when he refused to join the other fifteen candidates in a move to release delegates. His counter proposal was nothing more than a polite refusal. This act advertised to the country that Mr. McAdoo was afraid to risk his candidacy in the hands of a convention released from instructions. He had the largest number of instructed delegates and the only fair inference from his action was that he was afraid to trust his own supporters.

His behavior immediately following the nomination of Davis still further emphasized his lack of good sportsmanship. Instead of taking his own defeat gracefully and having something complimentary to say of the nominee, he declined to make any statement further than to say he was going to Europe. He did issue a statement before sailing praising the nominees and pledging his active support of the ticket. But this could not erase the impression created by his actions in the first few hours after the nomination of Davis. He allowed the impression to get out during the first day or two after his defeat that he would probably not support the ticket. That impression remained until he issued his statement just before sailing for Europe.

The average American loves a good sport and detests a poor loser. Mr. McAdoo went to the convention with a great many very warm admirers. He certainly left the convention with fewer warm supporters than he started in with. Two successive defeats for the presidential nomination are usually fatal. In fact, one defeat following a strenuously waged campaign is usually fatal. Mr. McAdoo survived his defeat of four years ago, but his defeat this year will no doubt finish him as a serious factor in party affairs.

One of the surprising developments of the convention was that Governor Smith of New York apparently came out stronger than he went in. He and his managers avoided several of the unfortunate blunders made by McAdoo and his leaders. Instead of waning his support seemed to grow. His opponents had advertised him as a product of the Bowery, but he manifested a sportsmanship that won the admiration of many who disagree with the policies he advocates. Some of those who had ridiculed Smith came to appreciate that his election to the governorship of New York was something more than a political accident.

McAdoo shrank under the convention spotlight. Smith considerably more than held his own.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

The nomination of John W. Davis of West Virginia by the Democrats was without doubt the best way out of the unprecedented deadlock. It should have been apparent to every thoughtful person from the very outset that neither McAdoo nor Smith could be nominated and that agreement between the supporters of these two men was impossible until both Smith and McAdoo were eliminated.

The nomination of Davis and Charles W. Bryan was a happy solution of a situation that threatened the party organization. All factions of the party can unite in the support of the nominees. Very few other men could have won united support

The nomination of McAdoo, Smith or Underwood would have brought about serious divisions in the party and possible open revolt.

Mr. Davis' record stamps him as a man of the highest order. He is perhaps the best representative of the Wilson ideals and Wilson policies of all the list of Democratic leaders. Not even McAdoo typified Wilson as Davis does, notwithstanding the belief of many that the war President's son-in-law and Treasury Secretary was a fit representative of the Wilson policies. Wilson and McAdoo differed on many issues, railroads, prohibition and many others.

Mr. Davis is a brilliant speaker and enters the race in the prime of physical vigor. He is 51 years of age, and if elected he would retire from the presidency at the age when most of our Presidents enter the White House. The Democrats have greatly improved their chance of winning by the nomination of a ticket behind which all party factions can be united.

RECORD POT SHOTS.

If appendicitis operations keep up at the present rate there will be very few people who will have any place to carry blackberry seed.

At any rate nobody got his nerves so fussed up at the Republican convention that he had to go to Europe for rest.

And speaking of crown princes, what about the Bryan family?

It's really a shame that we haven't enough offices in Texas to go around among the Davidson and Terrell boys this year.

Maybe you have also noticed that the chicken that lays the egg does very little crowing.

FARM FEATURES FOR FARM FOLK.

July 28 to August 2, is the date set for the 1924 Farmers' Short Course at Texas A. & M. College. The business of the Texas A. & M. College is to build up Texas. The college is doing this in three ways. First, by educating a generation of better trained citizens to work for Texas. Second, by building up Texas as institutions; and third, by building up Texas soil, saving her resources and multiplying their power and value.

Every year the Texas A. & M. College tries to do one more thing through the Farmers' Short Course to build up all the people. The Boys' Agricultural Clubs, the Girls' Home Making Clubs, the Women's Home Demonstration Clubs, the County Farm Agent's work, all are out-growths of our own Agricultural and Mechanical College. To SERVE the people who make its service possible is the motive of our

Texas A. & M. College. And when its mission and its services are better understood Texas will be a better State.

Two years ago the College invited the agricultural writers of Texas to attend the Farmers' Short Course for the purpose of studying the relation of the Texas press to the FARM PEOPLE of the State. Last year the A. & M. College invited the Rural Ministers of Texas to attend the Farmers' Short Course to study the relation of the Rural Church to the life and happiness of the farm people. A meeting of two weeks was devoted to the study of the spiritual side of farm life and the best methods of service for the rural minister to the State of Texas.

As a result of that two weeks school in the interests of the rural church, the A. & M. College is this year making a survey of the rural church in Texas. Going to find out what ails the rural church and then doctor it in the most intelligent and Christ-like way. Is that not a Christian service to the State? How many of us know about it?

There is another thing going on in Texas this year. It is the School Survey. How many of the people are keeping up with that? How can we country folks keep up with all the big things that are going on in Texas? There is only ONE way to reach all the people with all the GOOD THINGS and that is through the PRESS. ARE WE DOING IT? That is the question the Agricultural Writers want to settle this year at their annual meeting during the Short Course.

What is the Texas press doing for the farm folk? Is the Texas press doing as much for the farmer and all his interests as the farmer and his family are doing for the Texas press. Is it giving as much time and thought and space to the rural community and its interests as it is to the city community and its interests? Is the agricultural side of the life of our State receiving from the State press its share of recognition and publicity as compared to the service it renders the State?

What is the biggest and most essential business in Texas? It is Texas agriculture with all its varied commercial, economic, industrial, educational, social, spiritual and other human interests. Isn't it? Now the thing the agricultural writers of Texas want to know is just how much the Texas press is doing for all these interests. Does the Texas press give as much time and space to the agricultural interests of Texas as it does to society, athletics, oil, automobiles, war, foreign affairs, gossip, scandal, crime, politics, fashions, entertainments and the funny page? Does the Texas press work as faithfully to reveal the advantages of the country as the city? Is the press in any way responsible for the drift of youth from the country to the overcrowded city? Does the city daily give as much back to the farmer for his subscription that is helpful and inspirational to him as it gives back to its city subscriber? Where do most of the big papers as well as the smaller newspapers subscription come from? Is the Texas press in any way responsible for the restlessness and discontent on the Texas farm?

The farmers of Texas and their families produced last year more than ONE BILLION DOLLARS of wealth for this State. They produced almost one-eleventh of all the agricultural wealth that was produced in the United States last year. What did the Texas press do for the farmers in proportion to what the farmers did for Texas? The agricultural writers of Texas want to know. They want to see what is being done for the farm people through the press. They want to learn how to be better servants of the State through their work. For this reason the Agricultural Writers' Association of Texas is planning to hold a Press Exhibit at their next session which will convene the same week as the Farmers' Short Course at A. & M. College.

Who are the agricultural writers? They are everybody who sends a newspaper or a magazine out to the farm people. Every paper that goes regularly to them something of special interest to them and their life work. Something that would help with their work on the farm, their home work, their community, their school, their church, their roads, their life in the country. How many of the editor in Texas give a column a week or a page a week to this cause? How are you interesting and reading your publication?

The A. & M. College will give $50 in prizes to the best County Weekly newspapers that are exhibited at the A. & M. Press Exhibit. The college is planning with the railroads for your transportation to the Farmers' Short Course. The Agricultural Writers' Association invites every editor in Texas to send in one copy of his paper to A. D. Jackson, College Station, Texas, some time before July 15, 1924. This invitation is to every paper and magazine—daily, weekly or monthly. Prizes are offered on County Weekly and Semi-Weekly papers only. We want the others to study. If you have a good feature send it in. Give the State a chance to know it. And last but not most important of all COME YOURSELF and tell us how you managed to put over such a fine plan. In this way you can render a service to your State and to your profession. Most of us never see more than a half dozen different newspapers. We do not know what the Texas press is doing for Texas. There are 1,180 newspapers published in Texas. We want a copy of every one of them in the Texas Exhibit. And we want a copy of every magazine

BAPTIST REVIVAL GAINING INTEREST

FORTY THREE CONVERSIONS SINCE BEGINNING OF MEET- ING BY DR. LYON

The Baptist revival in progress at the tabernacle north of the church on Main street is gaining interest with 43 conversions since the opening of the meeting. The large crowds that have gathered in the tabernacle have been taking much interest in the song services that are under the able leadership of Hugh L. Hiett of Arlington.

At one of the services 18 new members were received into the church 14 of whom came in by confession of faith. The other four were taken in by letter.

Possibly the largest crowd to gather at the meeting was present Sunday night when the yard outside the building was filled.

Two services a day are held by Dr. Lyon, pastor of the First Baptist Church and the interest in the meeting is growing as the revival progresses. The meeting will proceed through this week.

Craig is a spirit filled singer and young people's worker. Don't fail to hear these men," says Rev. Mr. Johnson.

"SONNY" GAINS DOLLARS AND BUSINESS SENSE

The importance, to every child, of an education in the principles of thrift is very clearly brought out in the monthly folders being issued by The Farmers State Bank.

The bank's officials call this a "True-to-Life" series because each month some incident typical of the average person's own experience is described and discussed.

The fourth story relates in a most interesting fashion an adventure in thrift of "Sonny Homer," an engaging youngster who will remind the reader of his own son, or of his kid brother, or, perhaps, of "himself" at that age.

In discussing the folder, Mr. Emory Roads, says:

"Many older people, having earned the bitter fruits of thriftlessness, in their anxiety to save the young people from a similar experience, are liable to paint thrift in dark, somber colors—as a hardship, a trial, a burdensome duty."

"Viewed through the eyes of youth, that picture naturally repels."

"If we are to make thrift appealing—if we are to make the children true 'believers' in the principle of thrift—we must lead them to think of thrift as the open gateway through which they pass to the things they need and want."

This is only one of the many interesting stories that are being mailed regularly by the bank. Others discuss the bank from a woman's viewpoint—what the bank means to the young business man, and to the man just launching into business for himself—the bank's encouragement to the home-builder—and the like.

These monthly publications of the bank are all attractively illustrated—some of them with four-color photographs.

LOCAL C. OF C. ONE DAY PROGRAM

LOCAL ORGANIZATION SHOWS
WORK DONE IN A DAY BY SECRETARY AND ASSISTANT

"Why don't the Chamber of Commerce Do Something?" is becoming one of the foremost questions to be answered by the officers of the organization as the end of the fiscal year closes. The question is asked about every phase of business promotion that is brought up in Vernon or Wilbarger county and the answer given by the secretary and others is that they have very little support from the men that would derive the most benefit from a move.

A day's work as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce shows a very interesting program. At this particular time of year when tourists are traveling through Vernon at the rate of about 200 a day the advertising done through information given out at the Chamber of Commerce is very valuable.

Other work of the secretary of the chamber of commerce is shown in the following report of the business attended to yesterday:

Called on nine dry goods merchants with R. B. Sherrill to get an agreement on opening and closing hours.

Answered mail.
Worked on questionnaires.
Distributed maps of city.

Gave news story to paper.
Answered several inquiries as to the establishing of a business college in Vernon.

Interviewed Mayor and Commissioners on paving the gap on West Wilbarger, and the two blocks on Fannin Street.

Talked with County Commissioner relative to getting road paved to Rayland.

Gave road information and maps to 15 tourists.

Four calls for work.

One call for vacant building.

Investigated the bringing of Governor Alf Taylor of Tennessee to Vernon for lecture.

Arranged to have Band and Boosters to attend Rayland picnic.

Arranged for some finishing work on Modern Home.

Inspected Tourist Park.

Answered 23 phone calls on various and sundry matters.

Met with directors.

In attacking the taxation platform of the Republican party Senator Sheppard used a bit of sarcasm in enumerating the items placed on the free list and ridiculed the Fordney-McCumber tariff law using a very entertaining form of wit. He expressed a desire for a change in the tariff laws stating that the tariff was beneficial to the wealthy class and a burden to the poorer people.

Senator Sheppard denounced the Fish-Cummins railroad law as the most communistic piece of legislation passed in the history of the country. By depriving railroads of their earnings above the amount fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission destroys initiative and makes railroad financing difficult, if not impossible, he said. Expansion of the rail facilities to keep pace with the growth of the country is imperative, he declared, stating that the proper way to handle the railroad problem is to limit the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulation of rates and prevention of discrimination between shippers and allow railroads to build up surplus earnings out of which to make improvements and extensions. A complete breakdown of the transportation systems of the country is certain if the Interstate Commerce Commission is permitted to continue confiscation of railroad earnings above a certain point, he declared. In conclusion the speaker informed the audience that there are two bills now in Congress that deal with financial aid to the farmer and that on his return to the capitol he would exert his influence to the passage of these bills.

With the eloquence for which the Senator has become famous, he held his audience from the first. The audience, more than a third of whom were women, was the largest that has assembled to hear candidates here this year.

W. N. Stokes introduced the speaker praising him for his accomplishments and recalling some of the instances of their school days in Pittsburg, Texas. Mr. Stokes and T. G. Hawkins escorted the Senator and party from Electra and entertained them with a luncheon. After the address Edar P. Haney, J. T. Young, and J. B. Hatchet, all of Wichita Falls, and R. E. Ward, of Electra, escorted the Senator to Wichita Falls where he spoke last night.

The man traveling the longest distance to hear the address was W. M. Hicks, of Enid, Okla., who is one of the sixteen national vice presidents of the Farmers-Labor Progressive League of the United States.

TO THE VOTERS OF
Justice Precinct No. 1

I wish to call your attention to my candidacy for Constable Precinct One.

I am not asking for your vote and support as a mere matter of favor but upon the same and sound points of good business and efficiency. To be sure I will very greatly appreciate your vote and influence yet I wish to call your attention to a few facts that speak louder than any thing else to the thinking voters.

First is the point of capability and efficiency to perform the duties of the office. To this I wish to state that I have a high school education and business experience which will easily enable me, if you elect me, to handle the affairs of the office in an efficient manner and to your entire satisfaction.

Second, I have been a citizen of Vernon for twenty-two years and have all these years tried as a faithful citizen to live up to the requirements of the law, in every respect.

Third, I have met my business and moral obligations to the best of my ability. My present work will not permit me to call from house to house and solicit the votes of the ladies as I would like to do. Hence I take this means to earnestly solicit the votes of all lady voters and ask that you carefully consider my qualifications. Promising, if elected, that I will live up to your expectation to the fullest extent of my ability.
